

PCTC ACCOMPLISHMENT REPORT

01 – 31 JULY 2017

The Philippine Center on Transnational Crime (PCTC) was established by virtue of Executive Order No. 62 to formulate and implement a concerted program of action of all law enforcement, intelligence and other government agencies for the prevention and control of large-scale crimes, such as drug trafficking, money laundering, arms smuggling, trafficking in persons, intellectual property rights violations, piracy on the high-seas and armed robbery on ships (PARAS), cyber-crime and terrorism.

The PCTC undertakes the following functions:

- to establish a shared central database on all transnational crimes;
- to supervise and control the conduct of all anti-transnational crime operations of all government agencies and instrumentalities;
- to establish a central database on national as well as international legislation and jurisprudence on transnational crime;
- to establish a center for strategic research on the structure and dynamics of transnational organized crime;
- to design programs and projects aimed at enhancing national capacity- building in combating transnational crime;
- to explore and coordinate information exchanges and training local and foreign counterparts;
- to enlist the assistance of any department, bureau, office, agency, or instrumentality of the government, including the use of their respective personnel, facilities and resource, and
- to perform such functions and carry out such activities as may be directed by the President.

I. OPERATIONS AGAINST TRANSNATIONAL ORGANIZED CRIMES

Pursuant to its mandate, the following significant activities were accomplished based on its four-point Program of Action, namely: a). international cooperation b). capacity building c). information exchange and d). law enforcement and policy initiatives.

A. DRUG TRAFFICKING:

NCB MANILA ISSUED PURPLE NOTICE UNDER CONTROL NO. P-658/07-2017 A MODUS OPERANDI REGARDING SHABU WORTH PHP 11 MILLION HIDDEN INSIDE COCONUTS, CAUGHT WHILE BEING DELIVERED TO JAIL – On July 04, 2017, NCB Manila published the said Purple Notice. On May 8, 2017, alert jail officers at the Dumaguete City District Jail in Dumaguete City, Negros Oriental in the Philippines managed to intercept four (4) large packets of SHABU, estimated to be worth PHP 11 million (around USD 218,000 at the current exchange rate), hidden inside young coconuts, to be made into fruit salad. These items were delivered for an inmate, who is incarcerated for drug charges. The unknown delivery men left the items without meeting the above mentioned inmate, but alert jail officers noticed that, of the thirty (30) fresh buko (young coconuts) delivered, six (6) looked altered and no longer fresh. Opening these coconuts revealed that these been drained of water and replaced by Shabu.

NCB MANILA ISSUED PURPLE NOTICE UNDER CONTROL NO. P-667/7-2017 A MODUS OPERANDI REGARDING CANDIES LACED WITH MARIJUANA. MIX THE DRUGS INTO CHOCOLATES OR GELATIN AND MAKE SMALL CANDIES OUT OF IT

— On July 19, 2017, NCB Manila published the said Purple Notice. On July 8, 2017, personnel of Laguna police provincial office led by PSUPT Vicente Cabatingan arrested two (2) suspects for allegedly producing candies laced with marijuana. Suspects mix the drugs into chocolates or gelatin and make small candies out of it, a new way for dealers to conceal drugs. The suspects said they had learned how to spike candies with marijuana in YouTube. Police operatives arrested the first suspect from his apartment at Park Spring Subdivision in the village of San Antonio, San Pedro, Laguna. The police had discovered small room equipped with an oven, baking molds, glass and wooden pipes and marijuana seeds that served as "growing room". The raid on first suspect's apartment also led to the arrest of his accomplice, a computer engineering student at Malayan Colleges, Laguna, who acted as the "chemist" and sold the tainted candies to college students. The police had set up a buy-bust operation inside the school compound in Cabuyao City, Laguna in an exclusive subdivision in San Pedro town after an informer tipped them of the new modus.

B. SECURITY:

SECURITY MEASURES FOR ASEAN 2017 CEBU – From June 29 to July 9, 2017, PCTC-VFO conducted security measures during the ASEAN in Cebu.
